

Web Security and Maintenance Services

McAfee Security

Privacy, Security & Virus Information

What You May Not Know About McAfee

McAfee is Security Only When you want to be the best in a field, you have to give it 100%.

All of McAfee's efforts are dedicated to security, and they are the largest company in the world to do so.

With a team this large behind you, you can trust the security that McAfee provides.

What threats is McAfee Defending in your Region?

McAfee is a World Innovator

McAfee designs and develops some of the finest and most comprehensive software in the industry, but this company believes in doing more. That is why McAfee prides themselves as world innovators in the battle against hackers and their viruses.

McAfee Avert Labs work around the clock to identify new threats and ensure that everyone is prepared and protected. Read more about the Top Ten Security Threats McAfee Has Identified for 2007.

McAfee is Already Protecting You

McAfee serves clients across the globe, in all industries, and organizations of all sizes. In fact, you likely already rely on McAfee protection, whether you are aware of it or not.

As a major provider for government agencies around world and businesses big and small, McAfee is working behind the scenes to make sure your government information is safe, and that you are able to do your job effectively.

McAfee also works with internet providers, online stores, and other web hosts to ensure that their clients are protected. In fact, in one year alone McAfee stopped 1 billion virus-infected emails before they even reached AOL clients' accounts.

With 24-hour support McAfee has always been there and will always be there. You can count on McAfee.